

THE FOURTH WALL EXHIBIT LONDON

LONDON CHANGE CAMP

THE INSPIRATION

Join us Thursday, April 26 as Toronto-based organizer and artist Dave Meslin presents his Fourth Wall Exhibit in London. You may also view the exhibit on Friday, April 27. And then join us Saturday, April 28 for ChangeCamp, where we discuss the potential for London.

How can we break the fourth wall at City Hall and create a culture of local citizen engagement?

1 FOURTH WALL EXHIBIT VIEW THE EXHIBIT

THURSDAY

April 26, 5:30 – 7:30pm

Fourth Wall Exhibit
Presentation and Reception

FRIDAY

April 27, noon – 5pm

Fourth Wall Exhibit

WHERE

Museum London, Community Gallery
421 Ridout Street, London, ON N6A 5H4

The “fourth wall” is a term used to describe the imaginary barrier separating an audience from a stage.

CITIZEN ENGAGEMENT

Bring your ideas on how we break through our own Fourth Wall in London and how we re-imagine government and citizenship in the age of participation. Explore the concept of Citizen Empowerment, as developed by the Community Engagement Task Force.

How can we open the doors to meaningful dialogue and participation, allowing us to collectively build the city we want to live in?

2

CHANGE CAMP JOIN THE DISCUSSION

SATURDAY

April 28, 9am – 12pm

Doors open 8:30am
Idea generation starts at 9am

WHERE

Museum London, Community Gallery
421 Ridout Street, London, ON N6A 5H4

Passionate about citizen engagement?

Interested in how to get involved with City Hall?

engage@london.ca

519-661-4792

www.fourthwallreception.eventbrite.com
www.fourthwallchangepcamp.eventbrite.com

PROUDLY SUPPORTED BY

